CITY MARKET, MILE AND HALF FROM SCENE OF EXPLOSION, HAS ALL WINDOWS BROKEN

Halifax city market after blast.

One of the few buildings in the stricken city which had been built strongly enough to withstand the force of the blast when the French munitions ship blew up in the harbor was the Halifax city market, one mile and a half from the scene. All of the windows were shattered, but the building remained intact and was used for a shelter when tarpaper was spread over the window frames.

CARD PARTY.
The Royal Neighbors will give a card party in the I. O. O. F. hall in the Fraternity building, Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

LEAVE FOR LOS ANGELES.
Mrs. B. B. Brooks and daughter, Miss Ashton, left Ogden last Thursday for Los Angeles, where they will spend the holidays.

CHRISTMAS EVE DANCE.
The social committee of the Fourth ward have for the past month been giving a very successful dancing party every Monday evening from 8:30 until 12, and will continue these social gatherings throughout the season on the night.

Monday evenings are being looked forward to among the younger sets and for the reason that Christmas and New Year's eve fall on that evening, added interest is being shown.
With a nicely arranged program of dances, played by the Crawford Jazz orchestra, a most enjoyable time is always assured.

FROM CAPITAL.
Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Swan of Salt Lake City, are in Ogden to spend the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. William Douglas.

MISS PROUT A GIFTED STUDENT OF PIANO.
Miss Dorothy Prout, a gifted young pupil of Squire Coop and a student of the Ogden conservatory of music, played the Sonata Op. 1, by A. Krause, at the industrial school Christmas entertainment Friday evening, last.
Miss Prout possesses the remarkable gift of absolute pitch, being able to distinguish any tone she hears.
In addition to Miss Prout's natural gift she has achieved a high degree of musical technique and knowledge by industrious study.

MARTHA SOCIETY XMAS TREE.
The Martha society will gather at the old home of the Day nursery on Washington avenue and Twenty-first street Monday afternoon when Christmas will be celebrated for the little folks. A pretty and well-laden tree will furnish part of the amusement offered for the tots.

PARTY FOR MRS. AGNES B. WARNER.
One of the most delightful affairs of the week was a surprise tendered Mrs. Agnes B. Warner by her pupils at Smithsonian institute. The classroom was beautifully decorated with Christmas bells and holly, while red and green streamers graced the walls. A Christmas tree adorned a corner, on which was hung presents for each one. Mrs. Warner sang a French song in her charming manner. Professor C. S. Springer gave a very encouraging talk.

to all assembled. Those who participated in this event were: Professor Springer, Mrs. Agnes B. Warner, Mildred Crosbie, Lillian Felt, Edna Wangsgard, Edna Campbell, Mildred Sulley, Vera Minnack, Esther Wamack, Ethel Tippets, Ann Davidson, Dagmar Hansen, Luella Jones, Aileen Thomas, Ann Wheelwright and Madeline Quillman.

PRETTY AFFAIR AT 'THE GABLES'.
"The Gables," home of the girls of the Utah State industrial school, was the scene of a Christmas celebration last night. The program consisted of music, songs and readings. Parents, friends and relatives, in addition to the officials of the institution, constituted the attendance.

The program was prepared by Miss Helen Maycock, of the industrial school faculty, assisted by Mrs. Mary Mann, Mrs. Robinson and Miss Zina Larkin. Two one-act plays were produced. Other numbers on the program were "Christmas Carols," by a chorus; "The Magi Story," Bible reading; "Song of Praise" and others.
The room was appropriately decorated and Santa Claus, properly costumed, was present.

RECEPTION FOR BRIDE AND GROOM.
Numbered among the charming brides of the holiday season is Mrs. Ephraim Poulter who before her marriage in the Salt Lake temple last Wednesday was Miss Lillian Kingston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kingston of Taylor. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Moroni Poulter of 924 Twenty-second street, Ogden and district manager of the ordinary department in the local office of the West Coast Life Insurance company.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Poulter were tendered a pretty home reception by the bride's parents in Taylor, over twenty-five relatives and near friends being present. The home was made attractive with effective decorations and merriment prevailed until a late hour.

Games and musical selections, both vocal and instrumental were enjoyed and refreshments were served.
Mr. and Mrs. Poulter were the recipients of many pretty gifts. They expect to leave for a coast trip sometime in January and will make their home in Ogden upon their return.

COAST TRIP.
Mrs. Etta Shupe and daughter Amy left Ogden Thursday for San Diego, where they will visit with Mrs. Shupe's brother, Eugene Gay, of the 145th field artillery head division. Later they will go to Los Angeles for an indefinite visit.

TO VISIT HUSBAND.
Mrs. Fred W. Jensen left on Thursday for Los Angeles to visit with her husband who has been allowed a brief furlough from Camp Kearny.

MRS. ECCLES HOME.
Mrs. L. R. Eccles arrived home this morning after a brief eastern trip which included visits in New York and Chicago.

GILES-SILVERTHORN.
Miss Marvel Giles, charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Giles of 499 1/2 Second street and Bert Silverthorn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Silverthorn, were quietly married last Wednesday in the county court house.
Mr. and Mrs. Silverthorn are two of Ogden's most popular young people and their wedding is of interest to a large circle of friends.

LEAVE FOR CALIFORNIA.
Mrs. George Donaldson and Miss Lila Peterson, daughter of Conductor Peterson left Ogden last Wednesday morning for an extended visit on the coast.

MISS FARR MEETS HOME FRIENDS.
Miss Mildred Farr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Farr, writes a cheery letter from Boston, where she is finishing her last year in kindergarten training. She spent her first Thanksgiving at home happily and met home friends in the "hub city".
Mr. Young, a former Salt Lake University student, now at Harvard, found the Mormon headquarters and showed them kindly courtesies. Miss Gladys Rich was later seen and the meeting was a pleasant one to girls far from home.
Miss Farr interestingly describes work at the settlement house, her impressions of life in the Massachusetts capital and appreciation of the pleasant happy homes in Ogden.
Both Miss Mildred and Miss Lyndall are planning to take in concerts by noted artists and any events that will add to their education and general training.

On Tuesday afternoon of each week, Miss Mildred is free from other work, so she volunteered to teach a class of Italian and Jewish boys in clay modeling at one of the largest settlement houses in the city. She finds her pupils very interesting to work with and her tasks become harder and more and more painstaking and enjoyable as she progresses in her efforts to bring joy and light into the minds of those foreign children.
